SASS 50TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

This year the Sydney Anglican Stamp Society commemorates 50 years since its founding in December 1972. To appropriately mark the occasion the Committee is looking at options for the issue of a commemorative postal item and perhaps a special luncheon. Members will be kept informed of progress in this matter and are welcome to put forward to the Committee any suggestions they may have on this.

OTHER MATTERS

* Winter's Day with Stamps was held on Saturday 23rd July and was successful with 9 SASS lots sold at auction netting $117.90 and CMS books sales of $200.50. Total sale funds from the day banked to the CMS account were $308.40 (net of $10.00 table fee expense).

* Upcoming PHILAS auctions are on Saturday 17th September 2022 (Special Auction no. 141 comprising fine and scarce material including offerings from the British Commonwealth collection compiled by the late Ron Flowers) and the general auction to be held on Saturday 12th November 2022. For further details visit the philas.net.au website.

* The next PHILAS House Open Day is scheduled for Saturday 15th October from 10.00am – 4.00pm as an Inter-club competition day.

MEMBERSHIP FEES

Members are reminded that the 2022 SASS membership fee is due. If you have not yet renewed your membership could you please make payment of the $10.00 fee to the Treasurer, Andrew Bennett.

COVID GUIDELINES

All NSW Health Covid Regulations applicable at the time of the meeting will be applied. At the present time St Paul's Church, Carlingford does not have in place any specific Covid-19 Restrictions but in line with NSW Health guidelines, the following is recommended:

- If you have fever or any flu-like symptoms, we ask the person to stay home and recover before coming to church again.
- Face masks are not mandatory but are recommended for big gatherings. Masks, hand sanitisers and wipes are available on site.
- Face masks and gloves are to be used when serving food and food is recommended to be individually packaged if possible.
