SASS 50TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

The Sydney Anglican Stamp Society commemorated the 50 years since its founding in December 1972 with a special luncheon held following closure of the 10th December Meeting. The luncheon was well attended by Society members and their guests with Garry Dibley, Mission Operations Director (NSW & ACT) an invited guest. The cost of the luncheon was subsidised by the Society.

A limited release postal item was provided free of cost to members to commemorate the milestone anniversary and any member who has not yet received one should contact the President, Ken Pullen.

OTHER MATTERS

* The Petersham Stamp & Coin Fair is being held on Sunday 29th January 2023 at 107 Crystal Street, Petersham (Near Station) between 9.30am – 4.00pm. Admission is $2.00 (Adult). The following Petersham Stamp & Coin Fair is on Sunday 30th April 2023.

MEMBERSHIP FEES

Membership fees for 2023 are due as from the February AGM. The annual membership fee (currently $10.00) is to be determined at the AGM and it would be appreciated if members could pay their renewal fee to the Treasurer, Andrew Bennett at the February meeting.

COVID GUIDELINES

All NSW Health Covid Regulations applicable at the time of the meeting will be applied. At the present time St Paul's Church, Carlingford does not have in place any specific Covid-19 Restrictions but in line with NSW Health guidelines, the following is recommended:

- If you have fever or any flu-like symptoms, we ask the person to stay home and recover before coming to church again.
- Face masks are not mandatory but are recommended for big gatherings. Masks, hand sanitisers and wipes are available on site.
- Face masks and gloves are to be used when serving food and food is recommended to be individually packaged if possible.
